

CONTENTS

MARCH 2007

11 From the Editor

As two new British solo Vendée campaigns are announced, the Editor wonders where the future stars will come from after the demise of the Global Challenge

COVER STORY

12 On the Wind

British America's Cup team has serious backing for the next two campaigns; London Boat Show in decline? News from the January show; big changes for Antigua Sailing Week; Aussie Fastnet yacht dismantled after Sydney Hobart

25 The Walrus

A cruise as space travel, a boat made of vitamin C? Some of the projects in hand at the moment prove that truth is stranger than fiction. Will the Walrus be out of a job?

26 Letters

London is more like a trade show; Durban is a great city; a reader has a brush with Maltese Falcon in the Caribbean

COVER STORY

30 Robin Knox-Johnston

Sir Robin's saga so far. Halfway round the world on his yacht Saga Insurance, Sir Robin Knox-Johnston tells of his experiences in the arduous Velux 5 Oceans solo race with extracts from his e-mail diaries

36 Gear

Spotted at the London Boat Show: the latest foulweather gear from Musto; a handheld VHF that floats; an upgraded fuel cell; and some impressive compact flares

40 Power rangers

It's the one issue that exercises the minds of modern cruisers more than any other: power management. We speak to a selection of ARC skippers about their strategies

45 Leading Edge

A new service for downloading weather files on board could make life easier for long distance cruisers – and it's free

46 Yachts

Interiors rule on the Show boats. We feature ten new yachts exhibited at the London Boat Show, from a 65ft Oyster to a modern-day Wayfarer-type dinghy

68 180ft Adèle in the Pacific

COVER PICTURE

Pacific cruising with the 180ft Adèle. The owner's wife Jennifer relaxes on the beach
Photo: Jan-Eric Österlund

EDITORIAL ENQUIRIES King's Reach Tower, Stamford St, London SE1 9LS Tel: +44 (0)20 7261 6800 (24hr) Fax: +44 (0)20 7261 6818 e-mail: yachting_world@ipcmedia.com

ADVERTISEMENT ENQUIRIES +44 (0)20 7261 7007 Fax: +44 (0)20 7261 6818 e-mail: alan_warren@ipcmedia.com

SUBSCRIPTION ENQUIRIES Tel: +44 (0)845 676 7778. See page 114 for offers.

TO STOCK YACHTING WORLD Tel: +44 (0)20 7633 3450. christopher_lynn@marketforce.co.uk

CONTENTS

30 Sir Robin's saga so far

54 5 top yachts

62 New-generation Open 60 sailing

108 Star-blessed Kiwis?

COVER STORY

54 European Yacht of the Year 2007

And the winners are... We present the five top European yachts in categories from Under 10m to Over 1m, plus an Innovation category

62 Generation X

The latest generation of Open 60s are faster, more powerful and more demanding than ever. So what kind of sailor will it need to sail these beasts solo round the world? Elaine Bunting investigates

COVER STORY

68 French Polynesia in style

The lovely 180ft ketch Adèle, last seen by Yachting World readers in northern Norway, cruises the islands of the Pacific, with stunning photography

84 Practical cruising

Rig checks. It is often a failure of the smallest part that can bring down a mast, so it's important to make checking over the rig a regular part of your inspection routine. Andrew Roberts shows you how

90 Cruising

Investigation: why a yacht lost its rudder and sank in just 40 mins; solo cruisers in difficulties in the Southern Ocean. Plus: Herb Hilgenberg and his outstanding free weather service

96 Great Seamanship

On a Flyer. Conny van Rietschoten was an uncompromising skipper who ran his Whitbread yacht Flyer with discipline. It paid off when she took a pounding in the Southern Ocean

102 Racing

Backroom deals in the America's Cup?; a tough Sydney Hobart; suntan in Key West

108 A Kiwi comeback in the stars

Can Emirates Team New Zealand win the America's Cup? Ask an astrologer...

113 Inside Alinghi

The America's Cup Defender is honing crew skills in Dubai while the shore crew ready the new boat

115 Going for Gold

Train hard, fight easy is the message from the British Olympic camp where tough winter training is preparing elite sailors for competition

116 SuperSail

Plans for a transatlantic superyacht race; 70 expected for the Superyacht Cup Palma in June; berthing bother in Valencia; Malaysia extends a welcome to luxury yachts

134 Yachts for sale

140 Classified ads

156 One Amazing Day

A rare day of progress in the North West Passage for Arctic adventurer Eric Brossier